A Not-for-Profit Initiative of the HERO GROUP

- ii. Depending on the nature of indiscipline and misconduct, penalties as mentioned in the First Ordinance of the University or a combination thereof including Police complaints may also be awarded.
- iii. Paying the fine does not mean cancellation of the penalty points. The fine is over and above the penalty points levied.
- iv. If a student accumulates 100 penalty points (during the entire stay at BMU), she/he is barred from placement.
- v. A student will be expelled from the University upon accumulating 200 penalty points at any time during their tenure of study at the University.
- vi. All cases of indiscipline shall be reported to the Office of Dean, Student Welfare promptly. For cases from the hostel, the Warden via a proper channel (through the Chief Warden) shall forward the case to the Dean-Student Welfare after initial investigation. (within 02 days of the case being reported). Office of the Dean, Student Welfare shall investigate and share the investigation report with the respective Dean of the School. (within 03 days of receiving the case). The Dean of the respective School shall recommend whether the case is to be forwarded to the DAC Committee.
- vii. On receipt of case of indiscipline from the office of the Dean Student Welfare, the Member Secretary, DAC shall allocate a unique number to every complaint. On the advice of the Chairperson, DAC, the DAC meetings shall be convened.
- viii. For complaints under all levels, DAC shall issue Show Cause Notice, conduct an enquiry, afford a personal hearing to the student, and thereafter take the decision.
- ix. The Scholarship will not be revoked for the students who are awarded Level 01 penalty for the first time.
- x. The final decision would be sent to the concerned Program Office & Dean of the School and the Office of the Registrar, after the approval of the Vice Chancellor, BMU.
- xi. The program office will communicate the decision to the student and parent/local guardian and send a copy of the decision to the mentor of the student.
- xii. Record of penalty points awarded to the students is to be maintained by respective Program Offices and the Office of Registrar.
- xiii. Fines imposed must be paid within a week of the communication of the decision by the Program Office and receipt of payment, produced. In case, the fine is not deposited within a week, the Chairperson, DAC reserves the right to increase the fine. It will be the duty of the Program Office to intimate Member Secretary-DAC in case of fine not deposited by the student within the stipulated time.

- xiv. Students have the right to appeal against the award of fines and penalty by writing to appeal.dac@bml.edu.in after payment of an appeal fee of Rs. 500 within a week's time from the date of communication of the decision by the Program Office. The Appellate Committee would meet and decide after affording the offender a hearing in person. In case the appeal is upheld, the student would be refunded the appeal fee and the fine/penalty points levied earlier will be adjusted appropriately. The Appellate Committee would consider the appeal only after the student has paid the fine and appeal fee. If the student's appeal is turned down, the appeal fee will be forfeited.
- xv. DAC reserves the right to punish repeat offenders to a greater extent.
